

Junior High Kids to Take over the Kokugikan

by Mark Buckton

On the back of the 23rd, All Japan Wanpaku Sumo Tournament, held at the Ryogoku Kokugikan on July 29th, August 5th will see yet another amateur event taking place in sumo's heartland as The National Junior High School Sumo Championships look to ID the best of the dohyo best for boys in the 12-15 age group.

The event is set to run from 9am and will be the last opportunity to see amateur sumo before early October due to the September Aki Basho scheduled Sep 9th - 23rd.