The world famous insurance company 'Lloyds of London' used to refer to those it dealt with as 'names' in a sort of mixture of discreet respect bordering on Swiss bank anonymity.

No such anonymity from SFM though as we are extremely proud to announce an addition to the international team of one of the world's most famous 'names' in terms of foreign fans - and indeed authors - Mr. Eduardo de Paz of Spain. Eduardo is well known and respected for his online Boletin de Sumo en Espanol and is author of the only Spanish language book on sumo today in existence: Sumo - La lucha de los Dioses.

Eduardo will be joining the SFM translation team to work with and complement the efforts to date of Juan Pablo Vieytes and will thus be helping to bring sumo to a much wider audience in the coming months and hopefully years.

We hope you will join us in welcoming Eduardo to the only multilingual sumo source out there on the WWW today.
