

If you want to know about Sumo, ask an Israeli...

by Mark Buckton

On a recent Middle East trip, former Japanese Foreign Minister, Taro Aso attended a reception in Israel where he was fortunate enough to hook up with the nation's leading 'sumoite' - the 'Golden One' - Mr. Moti Dichne!

As is apparent in the photos taken at the event, Aso is clearly having his ear bent and, while it is presumed to be over the antics of a certain yokozuna, nothing official has yet been released.
